

Bob Calvin, MS, RD, CSSD, LD/N, CSCS

Currently, Bob works as the Director of Performance Nutritionist for EXOS in Gulf Breeze, Florida, on the campus of the Andrew's Institute. During his tenure at EXOS, he has had the opportunity to coach, educate & motivate tactical, professional, collegiate, and high school athletes from a variety of sports, on 5 continents, through all aspects of performance nutrition. Prior to joining Athletes' Performance, Bob worked as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas A&M University where he also worked with a variety of athletes ranging from male football players to female equestrian riders.